

FAQs for filling Examination of UG Regular & Vocational

 How to find Exam form link?

Ans.- Search ppuponline.in in your browser and find the button name (Examination form for UG Regular & Vocational) then click on the button and search your correct details and fill your form.

 How to search Examination form?

Ans.- Open the examination form and select your exam type for example-

If you are a fresh student then select your exam type UG Regular then select your course after that you will have to fill your Registration number and Father's or Mother's Name (as on Reg. slip) then fill the Captcha as showing on your screen and search the form.

If you are a promoted student then select your exam type UG (Promoted/Back) then select your course after that you will have to fill your Previous Roll number and Father's or Mother's Name (as on Reg. slip) then fill the Captcha as showing on your screen and search the form.

If you are a Fail student then select your exam type UG (Failed Student) then select your course after that you will have to fill your Previous Roll number and Father's or Mother's Name (as on Reg. slip) then fill the Captcha as showing on your screen and search the form.

 What to do if my payment has been deducted but still form is showing unpaid?

Ans.- If your payment has been deducted from your account but still showing unpaid then you have to go on Re-payment Examination form / Payment Receipt button on ppuponline.in then if your payment status is success then Payment will automatically be updated and if it still showing to pay again the you have to make a new payment. Your previous payment will be refund in few days, so do not be panic and wait for one week to two week for settlement.